"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven."

The 1974 Round-up staff dedicates this book to Major George Hall Duncan, for his dedication to keep Wroxeter a beautiful campus.

The trees are in their autumn beauty,
the woodland paths
are dry,
under the October twilight the water
mirrors a still sky;

Winter

Our lives float on quiet waters . . .
Down softly floating streams, where silvery willows shadows calm waves.
Gentle bird songs
and murmuring freshets leap from the woodland in snowy circlets.
Green embowers us,
and fragrant mosses,
spicy odors
that drift in the languid swaying breezes . . .

For winter's rains and ruins are over,
And all the season of snows and sins;
The days dividing lover and lover,
The light that loses, the night that wins;
And time remembered is grief forgotten And frosts are slain and flowers begotten
And in green underwood and cover Blossom by blossom, the spring begins
